	Use 'Places' activity sheet to match the words to the pictures.	Play 'places bingo'.
	Use this activity to find out from the students which places they have been to before and if there are any that they haven't been to or don't know what they are. If the vocabulary on the bingo cards is too tricky, you can use the alternative matching activity with only five words. This can be found Use the activity to introduce the idea of museums and art galleries.
What is this?	Play 'What is This?' using the PowerPoint presentation. As you show each picture ask your students to tell you what they think the object is. As the game progresses the objects will become more unusual. In fact, there are seven pairs, some new things which the students will recognise and the others are what people in the past used. Introduce terms 'old' and 'new'; 'then' and 'now', 'past' and 'present'.		PowerPoint

Where is Southampton?	Show the slide of the map of the world or use a map that you might already have in the classroom. If using an interactive whiteboard you could invite students to come up and make a mark where Southampton is on the map, and if students are forthcoming they can also mark on the mark where they come from too. If you don't have an interactive whiteboard you could print the slide out or use a large map if you have one. Encourage your students to reflect on the fact that people have been coming to Southampton for a very long time. Complete the 'Where is Southampton' activity sheet including in the Activity pack.	PowerPoint Activity packs
